DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Republicans Assembled at Hawesville.

E. P. McAdams, Chairman Republican Committee for the 6th Judicial District, called the Republicans to order in the Court House at Hawesville to consider the nomination of District officers. The counties represented were Davies and Hancock, with a letter from Chairman Tinsley to Mr. McAdams to represent Ohio county.

E. P. McAdams, of Hancock, was elected Chairman and James R. Higdon, of Davies, Secretary. The Convention decided to name candidates for Judicial offices. N. B. Chambers nominated Gen. D. L. Adair, of Hancock, for Circuit Judge. George Yager seconded the nomination and moved it be made unanimous. The motion prevailed and Gen. D. L. Adair was declared the nominee for Circuit Judge.

Nominations for Commonwealth's Attorney were declared in order. E. V. Vance, of Hancock, nominated E. P. Neal, of Ohio county, saying that he wanted somebody to vote for except the Democratic candidate Rowe, to whom he was opposed for many reasons. To begin with he was the candidate of the Democratic machine and that of itself was sufficient for all good Republicans. He said he was opposed to him for many other reasons, all of which he would not now stop to enumerate. He had in his infancy been named by his father, mother or some other good person the familiar, plain name of Jacob. But as he grew apace the boy grew ashamed of the name and took upon himself the more euphonious name of aping snobbery, J. Edwin Rowe. Mr. Vance said he would name a man the reverse of the Democratic candidate, a young man of ability and honor, who if elected would discharge the duties free from obligation to any man or set of men, fairly and impartially without fear or favor to anyone. E. P. Neal, of Ohio county, Capt. J. A. Clark, of Patesville, seconded the nomination of Mr. Neal, saying he had known Mr. Neal for years as a good man and a good Republican, faithful and fearless in doing what he thought was right, yet without as modest and as gentle as a woman. The nomination of Mr. Neal was made unanimous, and on motion the Convention adjourned. E. P. McAdams, Ch'm'n.

J. R. Hughes, Sec'y.

BEAVER DAM.

Sept. 27.—Tobacco cutting is almost over. A very fair crop of the weed raised this year.

There will be a good acreage of wheat sown this fall. Some farmers are done sowing, others are waiting on account of grasshoppers being so numerous.

Sowders & Son's colt show brought several visitors to our town Saturday. There were a good lot of colts exhibited. The first premium was awarded to H. B. Taylor, of Liberty neighborhood, second was awarded to S. L. Baird, of Kinderhook neighborhood, third to Richard Plummer, of Prentiss.

Our town is still on the improve, the new addition to the Central Hotel has been completed, and all the building is being newly painted, which helps the appearance of this part of town. Mr. Daniel's house is nearing completion; this gives our town another nice residence.

School at this place is progressing excellently. Miss Laura Runder, of Hartford, commenced school at South Beaver Dam last Monday week. Baker Rhoads, of South Beaver Dam, commenced school at Union the same day. We wish them much success as they are young in the cause.

Jessie Moseley is the happiest man in the county; it's a boy.

Our former townsman, J. Will Cooper, of Cromwell, was among his friends here Saturday.

Mr. Taber, of the firm of Hocker & Tabor, Rosine, was in town Saturday evening.

FORDSVILLE.

Sept. 22.—I am glad to say that Mr. J. R. Walker, who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever, is improving rapidly.

Misses Olive Howard, Cora Miller and Clarence Smith are quite ill with typhoid fever.

The doors of the new hotel are now open to the public. Its outward show is beautiful and its inward purity is assured by its gentlemanly proprietors.

Col. J. S. R. Wedding addressed the people of this place last Saturday on the political questions of the day. He shot holes through the Democratic circus with free wool and busted the Third Party Side Show with government railroads. He aroused the Republicans from the state of lethargy into which they had fallen, armed each one with a pop-gun and sent him into the battlefield.

A Harrison and Reid flag will be raised at this place Saturday, October 8. Everybody is respectfully invited to be present. Speaking will be the order of the day.

Railroading is all the go between here and Horse Branch. The work is progressing nicely. Before spring shall come again, the heretofore dark and silent bottoms will have, mingled with the who, whoo of the lonely owl, the mighty choo, choo of the modern steam engine as it wheels along over its iron road.

In the way of weddings, I can say that Richard Faqua and Miss Rena Worster skipped to Cannelton, Ind., one day last week and were married. Also, John Mason and Miss Annie Belle Johnson were unexpectedly absent from home one morning last week. A day or two later the parents received a letter which was mailed at Henderson, bearing the intelligence that they were man and wife and on their way to Texas.

If actions speak for anything, I think one of Fordsville's young M.D.'s is going to have the holy bonds of matrimony, which have been so long recorded in heaven, legalized on earth. His partner being Miss— Well, I guess you know—she lives in Hartford.

C. T. Sutton and wife, of Owensboro, are visiting friends and relatives in and near Fordsville this week.

T. H. Norton, of Owensboro, is in town this week.

The school at this place is progressing nicely with Dr. Alva Jones at its head and L. M. Rinder as assistant.

Success to the Republican party and party. W. C.

WHY WILL YOU cough when Shiloh's Cure will give immediate relief. Price 10 cents, 50 cents and $1. Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

HARDINSBURG.

Sept. 27.—No items from this place have appeared in your paper for some time. Your correspondent, "Robin Hood," has been seriously sick, but I am glad to say is convalescent. I shall attempt to supply his place this time however feeble that attempt may be.

The candidates for the various county offices spoke here to quite a large crowd yesterday. Mr. Ball, our candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, made a very good speech. He made a number of new friends.

The Harrison and Reid Club failed to hold their regular meeting last Saturday night. The membership of the club is now 150. We expect to enroll 200 before the campaign closes.

E. Bowmer was up from Cloverport Sunday.

Clint Lewis and son, James, who both have typhoid fever are improving.

Miss Board, who is teaching in Stephenport, has returned home. Scarlet fever having broken out among the children there, the school was dismissed until the 1st Monday in October.

There was a great game of ball played here on Saturday the 24th, between Hardinsburg and Owensboro. Our club was composed of home boys, while Owensboro has a regular paid nine. This was the second game of series, the first having been played at Owensboro. Hardinsburg was beaten there by a score of 16 to 7. The score last Saturday stood 8 to 7 in favor of our boys. About 300 people witnessed the game and the excitement of the scene can not be easily imagined when one of the home nine knocked a home run in the last half of the ninth inning, thus winning the game. Umbrellas were waved, hats tossed in the air and yell after yell from 300 throats rent the skies. In fact your correspondent was in imminent danger of losing his eye-sight at the hands of a young friend who was madly whirling an umbrella in the air. The third game will be played at Owensboro next Saturday.

At one of the meetings of the Harrison and Reid Club, motion was made and carried that we enroll the names of President Harrison and Whitlow Reid as honorary members of our club, and appoint a committee to write to each of them and inform them of the action of the club and solicit a reply from each. Replies were received from both of the gentlemen, and it was ordered that copies of the letter be spread upon the minute book and also that copies be sent to your paper for publication. The following are accurate copies:

Executive Mansion, Washington, Aug. 19 '92.
John P. Howell, Jr., Hardinsburg, Ky.
My DEAR SIR:—The letter of the 16th inst., signed by yourself and Mr. Eskridge has been received in the absence of the President, who, as you know, is at Loom Lake in attendance upon his invalid wife, and to secure some much needed rest. On his behalf I desire to express his thanks for the kind letter, and to say that he appreciates highly the efforts being made by the young men in the interest of the Republican party, as evidenced by their early organization and earnest work.

Very truly yours,
E. W. HALFORD, Private Sec'y.
Ophir Farm Purchase, P. O. Westchester Co., N. Y., Aug. 15.

Messrs. John P. Howell, Jr., and Jesse R. Eskridge, Hardinsburg, Ky.
My DEAR SIR:—Your courteous favor of August 16th reaches me on my return this morning from the East. I beg to express to you, and through you to the Republican club of Hardinsburg my best thanks for the distinction in conferring in electing me an honorary member. The Republicans of Kentucky have always had the courage of their convictions and have made as was needed an aggressive campaign for their party. They have been rewarded at times by considerable success, which I am sure it is within the power of such organizations as yours to make much greater in the future. There is no real reason why Kentucky, which still worships the memory of Henry Clay, should cast its political lot with the party, which tramples under foot Henry Clay's political teachings. Relying greatly for future gains upon the work of such clubs as yours, and with renewed thanks, I am,

Yours truly,
WHITLOW REID.

The club felt highly honored by thus being recognized by our two distinguished candidates. PURVIS.

Tis Even More Than That.
The modern newspaper must be more than a chronicler of passing events. Besides full and detailed accounts of the world's happenings, its columns must be replete with articles of a miscellaneous character of interest and merit. The family newspaper of today, to be a success, must produce a diversified class of matter that furnishes entertainment to all classes. All these qualifications are embodied in the Pennsylvania Grit, that peer of illustrated newspapers, published at Williamsport, Pa., and whose true merit has won it a place among the leading journals of this country. Agents and newsboys are wanted in every village and town in the United States, not already supplied, to sell the Grit. Good agents and newsboys make from 50 cents to $5 every Saturday selling the Grit. For free sample copy and full particulars, address Grit Publishing Company, Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

Those who believe that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will cure them are more liable to get well than those who don't.

If you happen to be one of those who don't believe, there's a matter of $500 to help your faith. It's for you if the makers of Dr. Sage's remedy can't cure you, no matter how bad or of how long standing your catarrh in the head may be.

The makers are the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y. They are known to every newspaper publisher and every druggist in the land, and you can easily ascertain that their word's as good as their bond.

To The Colored Voters of Ohio County.

GREETING.—We are nearing another Presidential contest. It behooves us, therefore, to look the pending issue square in the face and in the future, as in the past, be found on the side of Right, Justice and Equity.

Our limited education in Science of Government, prevents us from thoroughly understanding the economic questions that will be discussed during the campaign and voted upon at the approaching election, yet, No Colored Man need be deceived, as the lines are already drawn. The Democratic party through its platforms, policies and methods has always been, as it is to-day, the avowed enemy of the laboring masses in general, and the Negro in particular. It is true, however, that here and there throughout the country we may find an individual Democrat who has done a great many good things for individual colored men, but as a party, from the very earliest history of the Government to the present day, they have always objected to every measure, local or National, giving to the negro equal political rights. Judging, therefore, from the past, I have always found it a safe criterion to oppose whatever the Democratic party favors and favor whatever they oppose.

We may not with our limited education know much about the Tariff, and the unlimited coinage of silver, but we do know that where Republican ideas prevail the people, regardless of color, are more prosperous and feel as American citizens, "secure in the pursuits of life, liberty and happiness."

I would not in this underestimate your intelligence or impugn your fidelity to the great principles that underlie our National fabric, but knowing as I do the efforts that are being and will be put forth by Democrats to capture the less informed of my race, I advise the speedy organization of clubs throughout the county. In opposition to your efforts in this direction, you may find a few ignorant scoundrels of the race, who will ask with a devilish emphasis, "What has the Republican party ever done for the negro?" To such give this short but comprehensive answer: "All that has been done." Some will say: "It is time for the colored race to divide their political strength between the two grand parties; that such a step would be more conducive to the best interests of the Negro American." This is all political clap-net. The time to divide has not yet come, and will not be here until the Democratic party North and South, in States where they hold undisputed sway, accord to the negro, the same political rights, privileges and immunities as are enjoyed by those of the more favored race. Then we will divide. Then we will—if such a thing be possible—forget the past. Then, and not until then, will we forgive the wrongs heaped upon us for nearly three centuries.

The past brilliant history of the Republican party and the present National Administration speaks for itself. Its achievements under the wise, patriotic guidance of Harrison and Blaine, will, as the ages sweep by, shine in the face of coming generations with increased luster.

Yours, for God and my country,
G. W. HATTON.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 26, '92.

CAMPBELLSVILLE.
Sept. 27.—Hon. C. M. Barnett, Republican nominee for Congress in the Fourth Congressional District, spoke at this place on the 24th inst, to the largest Republican gathering ever met in the county. Mr. Barnett's speech of one hour and forty-five minutes, was listened to with profound interest and created the wildest enthusiasm among the Republicans of the county.

Mr. Barnett is making friends wherever he goes and if the Republicans of the District will their full duty between now and the 8th day of November, he will be elected. Don't sit and say we can't, but we can and will is the watch word.

We expect a speech from Col. J. S. R. Wedding before the election. Come on Bro. Wedding, we will give you a Taylor county reception.

The Louisville Conference of the M. E. Church South, has been in session at this place since the 20th inst, and adjourned to-day. The session has been very harmonious and successful, taken all together it was the largest and most intelligent body of men that ever assembled in this place and it was with regrets and reluctance that we parted with them. W. L. M.

Teachers' Meeting.
The Teachers' Association of Buford Magisterial District convened at King's Schoolhouse September 24. After religious exercise by C. C. Taylor, organized by electing J. L.

Elmore, President and A. P. Taylor, Secretary.

The following teachers were enrolled: J. L. Elmore, I. S. Mason, W. E. Bennett, Susie King and A. P. Taylor. The following were also enrolled and took part in the discussions: C. C. Taylor, W. Chapman, S. J. Richardson, W. Daniel, K. A. Martin and R. E. Williams.

Adjourned to meet at 1:30 o'clock. W. E. Bennett, in an appropriate talk, assured the teachers and visitors that they were gladly welcomed. A. P. Taylor responded in behalf of the teachers, in a few short remarks.

Mind Culture was discussed by I. S. Mason. His address was both interesting and instructive.

How to Teach Reading was then taken up and discussed by W. E. Bennett, I. S. Mason and J. L. Elmore. The two former recommended the use of charts, and gave their plan of using them in primary reading. Mr. Elmore gave some good suggestions among which was a method he was using at present in his advanced classes. Having his pupils in these classes to bring up a sentence for a definition other than the one found in the text-book. He said the results obtained were very interesting. Each of them said that the pupils should be retained in the reader until he thoroughly mastered it.

How to Control Children was then discussed at some length by the patrons and teachers.

The importance of Teachers' Meetings was discussed by A. P. Taylor.

After some preliminary remarks by several of the teachers, adjourned to meet at Bell's Run October 15, 1892.

We extend to the people of King's District our sincere thanks for the courteous manner in which we were entertained and commend them for interest manifested in the educational cause. The teachers of the district who were not present missed a grand feast of knowledge, and we hope they will all be present at our next meeting and let us continue to make the meetings interesting.

The presence of a political year, or more definitely, the year of a Presidential election, arouses in all, or more particularly the youth, a desire to know the names and administrations of the different Presidents from the time of Washington.

The following jingle, given by an old western pioneer, is one that he learned before his entrance to the noted military school, and it was instrumental in enabling him to answer one of the questions in his entrance examination, a feat accomplished by no other candidate at the examination:

When a joke makes a joker.
Van had to poke the fiery poker.
Boy, let Jack go home;
Get a comb.
The initial letter of each word is the first letter in the name of each President. Thus W, (of the first word, "when") stands for Washington, a for Adams, Joke for Jefferson, and so on.—Louisville Post.

The chances seem that in Judge McBeath's District composed of Grayson, Breckenridge, Meade and Hardin he will this time be stoned to death.

The Republican party has always believed in a free ballot and a fair count. There is as much satisfaction for it when these things are in the way of accomplishment by Democrats (as is now the case in Alabama) as when it is Republicans who are accomplishing it.

The refusal of the Third Party Committee to endorse any candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney leaves Judge Townsend out in the cold. It is now in order for Mr. Rowe to draw in his candidate and try another hook on which to catch the Third Party vote—he failed this time.

Mr. GEORGE TICKNOR CURTIS has been no less distinguished as an authority on constitutional law than he has been a Democrat for many years past. But the tariff plank in the Chicago platform is too much for him, and he announces his determination not to vote for Cleveland.

SOME Democrat started the report the other day that Secretary Elkins had died suddenly in West Virginia. From the manner in which the Secretary is pushing Democrats in West Virginia from their strongholds, there are doubtless many of them who wish he were dead; but he is not.

The County Superintendent feels that he is too well known to need any defense from the unjust attack made on him by the Herald of Wednesday, and refers the manner of his conducting the office to the good people of Ohio county, whose servant he is and for whose welfare it is his pleasure to labor.

It comes with very bad grace for the Herald to say anything about the people's interests not being safe in the hands of E. P. Neal as Commonwealth's Attorney. We cannot conceive of an imagination so fertile as to imagine they would be safer in the hands of Jake Rowe, when his unsavory record is considered.

The Republicans of Wisconsin have overthrown one gerrymannder of that State, which has resulted in the election of Wm. F. Vilas to the United States Senate, and are now making a gallant onslaught in the Supreme Court upon a second, which was enacted by the same Democratic Legislature that enacted the first.

CLEVELAND's letter of acceptance is a weak attempt to straddle the great questions now dividing the public mind. He, like his party, has found that Free Trade won't work and is trying to back down from the advanced position taken on that question in the Chicago platform. The man or the party that so tampers with public confidence is unworthy of the suffrage of the American people.

COL. C. M. BARNETT is growing rapidly in popularity and if the Republicans of the 4th District will only do their duty his election is assured. Let every Republican exert himself from now until the evening of the 8th of November and the old 4th will be redeemed. The Democracy is uneasy.
Mr. Montgomery is scared, and is begging piteously for the Third Party Democrats.

THE best opportunity the Republicans ever had to carry Kentucky is now presented. The Democratic party is completely at sea on all the great National issues. The platform is for Free Trade without reserve; Cleveland's letter of acceptance is for a tariff that will "wage no exterminating war against any American interest;" the masses of the Democratic party are for Free Silver; Cleveland unabashedly against it; reciprocity is declared a part of Free Trade, and yet it is denounced as a sham. Not only is the National Democracy in a very bad way, but the Democracy of Kentucky is in a predicament equally as shameful and disgusting. An incompetent Legislature is squandering the people's money and the old, old cry of a poverty stricken Treasury is hurled into the consideration of a great Commonwealth. With all these advantages the Republicans of Kentucky should feel encouraged to labor as they have never labored before for the redemption of Kentucky from the thrall of Democracy.

THE Democratic platform declare "that the Federal Government has no constitutional power to impose and collect tariff duties except for the purpose of revenue only." According to this doctrine, if the Democratic party should gain control of the Government it would be but a short time before this country would be bankrupt.
We say this, because any duty on any article produced in this country is a protective tariff to the extent of said duty, which the Democracy declares is unconstitutional, therefore, if they should undertake to raise the revenue necessary to run the Government without affording any protection to American industries they would have to levy a duty on only such articles as we do not and cannot produce. This being a fact undisputed, and the list of articles we do not produce to some extent, in some parts of our grand country being limited to a very small number, it is plain that our Government under Democratic rule would be forced into bankruptcy in a very short time, or our people would be heavily burdened by a direct tax for the upholding of the obligations of our country. Think of this.

How's This?

We happen to know Mr. Neal has more than a half a dozen law books, with more than a dozen lawsuits, with more books than J. E. Rowe and more practice in Circuit, Quarterly and Inferior Courts than Mr.
Rowe would have if he was not under the favor of E. D. Walker. The Herald says Mr. Neal never prosecuted or defended a man for felony.
How many times did Mr. Ringo defend or prosecute before he became a partner of E. D. Guffy? How many times Mr. Felix before he became the Attorney for the county? How many times J. E. Rowe would the favor of Mr. Walker? The Herald says he (Neal) never had a law office. Mr.
Neal never resided here since he was licensed. But how much of an office would Mr. Rowe have, if by himself?
Mr. Ringo before Mr. Guffy took him in? None. If Mr. Neal has none of these favorable opportunities to win him practice he don't need them, is able to take care of himself, to stand alone, and although not living here, but hard at work, farming 15 miles away, has attracted to himself a clientage in Circuit, Quarterly and the Inferior Courts around him, of which every man living here, and under more favorable circumstances might well be proud. Let us see what Mr.
Rowe thinks of Mr. Neal's capacity to practice law.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 28, 1892.
—This is to certify that on the day of May, 1889, I wanted J. E. Rowe to bring a suit for me in the Ohio Circuit Court against — Shack and he was in a state of delirium tremens with his eyes and face pained into a jelly and was unable and unfit to attend to it. He said he would get E.
P. Neal to attend to it for him, assuring me that Mr. Neal would attend to it as well as he could, and Mr.
Neal did kindly favor Mr. Rowe by doing so. M. V. CAMPFIELD.

PRESTON, Ky., Sept. 28, 1892.
—This is to certify that on the day January 1891, I in company with E. P. Neal passed the residence of J.
E. Rowe and Mrs. Rowe, wife of J. E.
Rowe, stopped Mr. Neal saying she had a letter from Mr. Rowe, saying that if she saw Mr. Neal to tell him to look after his (Mr. Rowe's) law cases and attend to them in his absence, as Mr. Walker was gone.

JOS. H. BARNES, Cashier.

Yours Respectfully,

Milby and Hayward.

Judge W. H. Milby, of Greenburg, had been billed to speak here Wednesday and was promptly on hand. Hon. W. T. Hayward, District Elector, was on hand and asked for a division of time, which was granted. Judge Milby opened in a speech of three quarters of an hour, in the course of which he stated the Republican position on the political issues of the day in a clear, concise speech. He was followed by Mr.
Hayward in an hour's speech in which the usual fallacies of Democratic doctrine were indicated in with great freedom, but without arousing any enthusiasm among the Democratic part of the congregation. Judge Milby followed in half an hour's talk and punctured Mr. Hayward's fallacies and mistakes in a way quite interesting and satisfactory to the Republicans.

A Big Day for Caneyville.

The good Republicans of Caney-ville and surrounding country had a big flag-raising Tuesday. Promptly at 12:30 the stars and stripes were run up to the height of one hundred and twelve feet and under its folds Judge W. H. Milby, of Greenburg; Col. C.
M. Barnett, of Hartford, and Capt.
G. W. Loag, of Leitchfield, poured into the Democratic ranks for two hours and a half, great broadsides of Republican truth. It was a great Republican feast and the party was encouraged and strengthened.

Never did speakers have better attention than was extended to these gentlemen by the enthusiastic crowd.
The Republicans of Caneyville deserve great credit for their energetic efforts, and Tuesday's work will only prove another reason why old Grayson will vote for Harrison, Reid and Barnett.

THEY MEET.

The Democratic and Republican Congressional Champions Meet in Joint Discussion.

BARNETT SCORES A BIG VICTORY.

"We have met the enemy and he is ours," was the feeling of every Republican as he left the Court House Monday evening after listening to the discussion between the Hon.
A. B. Montgomery and Col. C. M.
Barnett. Mr. Montgomery had an appointment here for that day and Col. Barnett accepted his invitation to be present.

Mr. Montgomery opened with a speech of one hour and a half, the greater part of which was spent in a vain attempt to whip some of his former adherents out of the Third Party back into the Democratic fold.
He pleaded earnestly with them now and ridiculed them then, assuming at different times the role of party boss in his demands of what should be done and then of humble office-seeker, begging for votes which he very badly needs. In answering the Third Party cry of more money he stated the great truths of Republican achievement and history step by step, opposed as these achievements were by the Democratic party. He believed in every Third Party principle except two, the sub-treasury and the ownership of railroads, and said that nobody but a Democrat in principle could be a member of the Third Party. He was in favor of the Free and Unlimited Coinage of Silver, although straddled by the Democratic platform and opposed by Cleveland. He tried to blow hot and cold and to get on the foundation of an honest dollar, but it was so weak he was lost in a mass of his own contradictions and absurdities.

Barnett replied and very forcibly let the wind out of Montgomery's Force Bill bubble, showed up the Democratic falsehoods and misrepresentations of the McKinley Bill and its effects, showing that it had resulted in building up the interests of the people and bringing no such dire calamities as predicted by the Democratic party. He called attention to the fact that Mr. Montgomery and Mr. Cleveland were in direct opposition to each other on the Silver question and that the Democratic party had departed from the faith of "the fathers" on the tariff. He showed up in its true light Democratic hypocisy in regard to pensions and its real hatred toward the old soldiers.

Mr. Montgomery made a very weak reply and everybody realized that Barnett was too much for him and that the cause of Democracy had gained nothing by the combat.

The candidates for District and County offices then took advantage of the opportunity of announcing themselves.

Beaver Dam Roller Mills.

The attention of the public is specially called to the fact that this Mill has just been completed upon the most modern plan, with all the improved appliances for the manufacture of the FINEST FLOUR and other Mill Products. Positively no money has been spared to make it turn out as fine product as any Mill in the STATE.

It has been thoroughly tested, having been run almost every day since its completion and a portion of the time at night to keep up with its orders. Its product has been sold to the best, most scrutinizing and particular trade of the country, and it is with pride that it can point to testimonials from the best bakers and many of the very best cooks of the county that it makes the best flour they ever used. For the benefit, convenience and protection of the farmer has this Mill been built, and to him will it look for its support.

With proper care Ohio County can produce as good wheat as any, and this Mill intends to see that her farmers get the benefit of any efforts they put forth in this direction. The best products of this Mill shall go upon the farmers table, and if he will favor it with his patronage and his influence satisfaction will be guaranteed to him.

We have now one of the very best and most experienced millers in the Green River Country, but that no pains may be spared to give the farmer the full benefit of his good wheat crop, we have ordered and are expecting every day an expert miller sent by the builders of our Mill to stay with us during the season. We shall certainly consider it a great favor if every farmer in the County will call on us within the next 60 days and get a sample of our product and our treatment. We want all the FIRST-CLASS wheat that is for sale in the County and if you have it to spare, load it up, and we will pay the highest market price for it.
Our Mill open every day except Sunday.

The welcome address at the coming meeting of the Farmers and Laborers Union at Taylorfield will be delivered by J. J. Keown instead of Dr.
Patton.

On account of the dedication, the Methodist Sunday School will meet next Sunday morning promptly at 9 o'clock. Let there be a full attendance.

GROSS WILLIAMS, Supt.

The many friends of Col. Shanks are pleased to see him so hale and hearty in his ripe old age. He is as jovial as a boy, and we hope this time-honored Republican war-horse may yet be spared many pleasant years.

John H. Owens, calling himself Black Jack the Ripper, and Bill Styles, two negroes, had a fight in Grayson county Monday, in which the latter was horribly mangled with a knife, being cut no less than twelve times.

Early yesterday morning, at Leitchfield, fire broke out in the block near the postoffice and before the flames could be arrested the Denton Hotel and adjacent buildings were destroyed. By great exertion the postoffice was saved.

Sadness and remorse will follow all the days of their lives those people who neglect their opportunities and fail to be made happy by obtaining a fine photograph or tintype from Davidson & Richardson, on the Burnt corner.
They sell 4 tintypes for 50 cents.

Col. J. S. R. Wedding will address the Republicans of the Fourth Congressional District at the following times and places:

Campbellsville, Sat. Oct. 15, 7 p. m.
Greensburg, Monday, Oct. 17, 1 p. m.
Leitchfield, Monday, Oct. 24, 1 p. m.

We do not wish to boast, but we will modestly say that we are highly pleased with the recognition the REPUBLICAN is receiving as an advertising medium. It pays to advertise and it pays to trade with merchants who are advertisers.

Friday at the Fair Grounds a bus driven by Will Taylor, of Field's stable, and a cart driven by a Mr.
Bozarth, collided resulting in the destruction of the cart and the crippling of one of the bus horses. The shaft struck the horse in the breast inflicting a serious wound, but it is thought he will recover.

Mr. S. R. Dent is in the city, writing insurance in the United States Life Insurance Company. He has written more policies than any other agent in the county and his company has the greatest amount of insurance of any company doing business in the county. The United States has also paid the largest number of policies representing the largest amount of money. Merit will tell.

Entertainment.

Trustees and patrons of District No.
76, Etanville, Ky., met at the school house Friday afternoon to witness the closing exercise of the first month of the school, which is being taught by Miss Sallie Coleman, of Hartford.
The entertainment was quite good, especially the "hoop drill" and "broom brigade." All the songs, recitations and dialogues were very enjoyable, and the little ones did themselves great credit. We are having a grand school and are proud of the work that is done and of the training which our children are receiving.

A Good Crop.

The most successful farmers are those who prepare best their ground before planting their crops. In many crops the good condition of the ground at planting time is more than half of the tending—with wheat it is all. This crop demands the utmost care in the preparation of the soil both in breaking and enriching. The farmer needs, besides what fertilizer he may gather, a Commercial fertilizer well adapted to his land. Such a fertilizer he can find in abundance in the best Bone Dust ever spread upon a wheat field. He will find this at TAYLOR & CO., Beaver Dam.

Church, South, near Boda, will be Crowe. The people of the neighbor-has been visiting her mother, Mrs.

Lucy James, for the past 3 weeks, will leave to-morrow accompanied by her sister, Miss Ada.

Our school is progressing finely under Prof. Pea.

J. K. Shaver has purchased the property belonging to C. F. Gillum.
Mr. Gillum will leave soon for Owensboro, where he will make his future home.

Rev. Cashman, who has been on this circuit for the past 2 years, preached his farewell sermon at the Union Church last night to a large and attentive audience. Rev. Campbell will take his place here.

Last Saturday was a great day for the Republicans of Livermore and the surrounding neighborhoods, the occasion being the raising of a Harrison flag by the Livermore Club and the delivering of great speeches. The pole is 300 feet high. It is said to be the highest pole in the State.

GUESS.

UNPARALLELED

The Grandest Fair Ever Held in Ohio County Convened at Hartford, Sept.
28th to Oct. 1.

LARGER CROWDS, FINER STOCK.

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week were the biggest four days in the history of Hartford. It was the sixteenth annual meeting of the Ohio County Fair Company and a week of unparalleled success. The weather was dry and beautiful and the track in first-class condition. Stock from other counties had been in training here the whole season, but on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday there was almost an incessant stream of stock pouring into the grounds, so that when the Fair opened Wednesday morning the finest and largest lot of stock ever seen together in Ohio county was ready to enter as contestants for the various premiums.

The largest crowd ever in attendance on a first day was on hand Wednesday, and from day to day the crowds increased until on Saturday the largest crowd ever seen in Harford gathered at the Fair Grounds.

With perhaps one exception it was the largest crowd ever gathered in the county. The young and the old, the rich and the poor, the high and the low, the gay and the solemn, the young and the maid were there in almost countless numbers. The amphitheatre and the grounds immediately adjacent were thronged with people.

And such was the management that not more than two or three accidents occurred and these of little moment.

The Company may well be proud of the success achieved. It is something of which to be proud. Every officer and every member has labored diligently for a big Fair and their efforts were rewarded even beyond their most far-reaching expectations.

Secretary, A. T. Nall, deserves mention for his excellent services. Mr.
D. F. Tracy's labor as Superintendent of Floral Hall was superb—the display being complimented as the richest and most extensive ever seen at an Ohio County Fair. Every officer deserves mention, but space forbids. The broad smile this week on the faces of both the stockholders and officers proves conclusively that it was a big success.

The running and trotting were good and especially the former—several fast horses being on the track. The mule races were unusually full and interesting. The novelty race requiring that the horses walk a quarter, trot a quarter and run a quarter was the hit of the week.

This meeting has done more to establish the Ohio County Fair firmly in the esteem of stockmen generally and of the people of the county than any previous meeting. The people realize that it is for their welfare to patronize such an institution, because it stimulates them to the production of better crops and raising of better stock.

At Leitchfield.

The largest crowd in attendance at a public speaking for years in Leitchfield gathered in the Court House at that place Tuesday night to hear Col.
C. M. Barnett and Judge W. H. Mil-by discuss the political issues of the day. The crowd gathered at 7 o'clock, a great many ladies being in attendance, and the Hall was soon full to overflowing. The stage had been beautifully decorated with flags and flowers by the fair ones of Leitchfield and presented a most inspiring appearance for the young orators who were to follow. The great Republican doctrines have not been told more forcibly since the days of Swope than they were told here. The best of order and the greatest enthusiasm pervaded the whole assembly during the three hours discussion.

Anderson's Bazaar.

Some people are always blowing and gassing about how much they sell, and how good trade is with them, etc., but our style is to show the people the goods and let them decide who has the cheapest line in town, and we have enough customers left to enable us to continue business. We defy competition in our line and think we have good reasons for doing so. Our goods are all bought by one of the most successful business men in the State, Mr. S. W. Anderson. Are all bought direct from the factories in the East, and are all bought for spot cash and we sell for as small a profit as anybody. So don't you agree with us that we are in a position to defy competition?

DRESS GOODS

We have a well selected stock of the latest styles, such as Blue Storm Serges, Plain Blue Serges, Cashmeres, Henriettas, &c., and we offer them all at low prices. You should not fail to see this line before you buy.

MILLINERY

As this is one of our favorite lines we feel confident we have the nicest selected stock in town and Miss Sara has the reputation of pleasing everybody and is considered the most stylish trimmer in this section, having had several years experience.

SHOES.

Our reputation on Anderson's Wear-forever Shoes is wide spread and well deserved for we guarantee every pair sold to give entire satisfaction. Our $1.99 Shoe is still a leader in fine wearing goods—have a complete line of them from 2½ to 7.

CARPETS, TRUNKS, & C.

Have you seen the lovely new styles in carpets we have? You should not fail to see them—they are pronounced the nicest in town. Our Trunk line is also complete; can sell you one to suit the times, $2.75 to $10.00. All solid Zinc.

It would require this whole paper for us to mention all the nice things we have to show you, but feel confident you will come to see us soon, bring your family and spend the day in our store—we will take pleasure in showing you our stock.
